Real prospecting is not sending out massive text messages with links. It's not throwing your opportunity all over social media. Real prospecting is picking up your phone, putting it to your ear, and making a phone call — or having a face-to-face conversation. We are in one of the largest industries on the planet — $11.5 trillion — this is worth a professional conversation.

This is business. Big business. Your energy and confidence will attract people to your opportunity.

Make It a Daily Activity

Prospect everywhere — grocery store, gym, church, gas station, your kid's events. Always be ready.
